Last week, the Joint Committee on Vaccination and Immunisation (JCVI) announced details of the autumn Covid-19 booster programme.

All adults aged 65 and over will be eligible for the vaccine.

NHS England will confirm details of how and when eligible people can access the autumn booster soon, although the JCVI has advised the programme should aim to be completed by early December 2023.

People who have not had any Covid-19 vaccines will be eligible for a single dose of the vaccine, based on the same criteria as for the autumn 2023 booster.

Further information and to view who else is eligible can be found here.
