Information and News

Sussex Living Marathon Weekend

The Sussex Living Marathon Weekend is back for its second year. The series of three races make up the classic marathon distance of 26.2 miles. The weekend starts at East Grinstead Sports Club on Saturday 4th May with a 10 mile race, moves to Haywards Heath on Sunday 5th May for a second 10 mile race starting in South Road and finishing in Victoria Park before ending on Monday 6th May in Church Walk Burgess Hill for a 6.2 mile (10km) run. Anyone can take part in one or all three depending on how brave they are. If you are interested in running sign up online at www.midsussexmarathon.co.uk. Marshals are being sought to help out at all three locations if you are able to help please contact Lucie Venables Temporary Participate Officer on 01444 477012 or lucie.venables@midsussex.gov.uk

Reaching Rio is a West Sussex County Council Health and Wellbeing Workplace initiative to get people involved in exercise. Teams of four have to complete various activities to gain miles on their road to Rio De Janiero, the host city for the next Olympic Games in 2016. The more inactive a team member currently the more miles they gain for the team. There are fantastic prizes on offer for teams that get involved. Mid Sussex District Council staff are getting involved and have entered a team. There is still time for members to get involved too as more than one team can be entered at each workplace. If you want to know more contact Lucie Venables, Temporary Participate Officer on 01444 477012 or e-mail lucie.venables@midsussex.gov.uk or www.reachingrio.org
